President's

A College Annual is note than a student activity; it is a dramatic record of institutional history.

Thus, this Yearbook should be a composite portroit of the individuals - the student body, the faculty, the staff, and the administration - who lived this period of Pembroke State College's history. Too, it should identify the various compus groups - academic, athletic, class, political, social, and spiritual through which the individuals functioned. In addition, it should carefully pertray the activities, while defining the purposes, of all these groups composing campus life. Incidentally in the process, the moterial aspects of the callege - its laboratories, its classrooms, its libraries, its total facilities - should be recorded. But, may significantly, the manner in and the degree to which these ends are achieved by a Yearbook Staff gly of ritorious insights into those values which the institution is inculcating within its

A preview of the 1960 Indianhead indicates that the Staff fulfilled its obligation well. Their efforts mest congrutulations of the entire College Community.

At Last Came Registration Day

"The World Is An Open Stage"

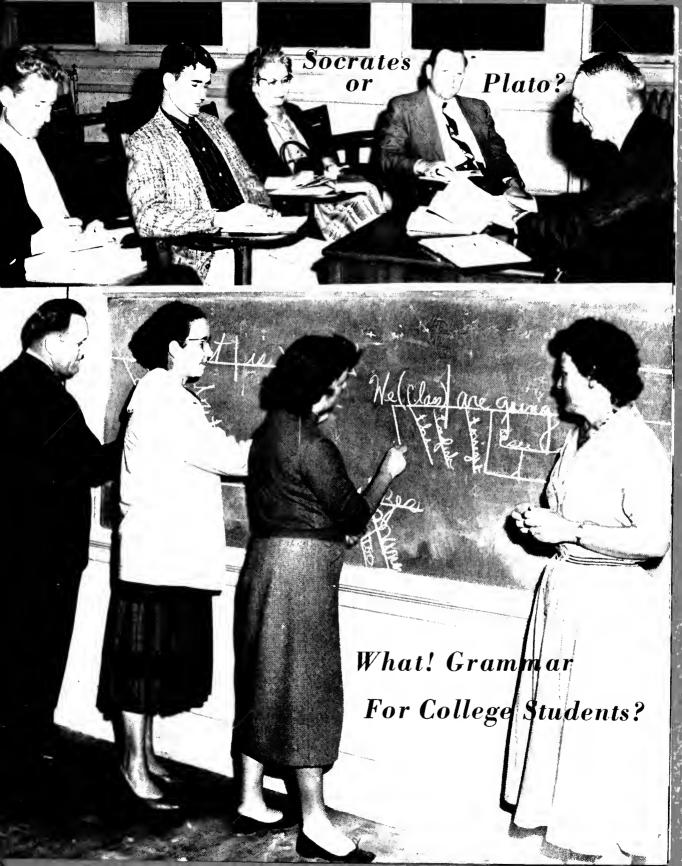

"There's music in the sighing of a reed;"
There's music in the gushing of a rill;
There's music in all things if men had ears:
Their earth is but an echo of the spheres."

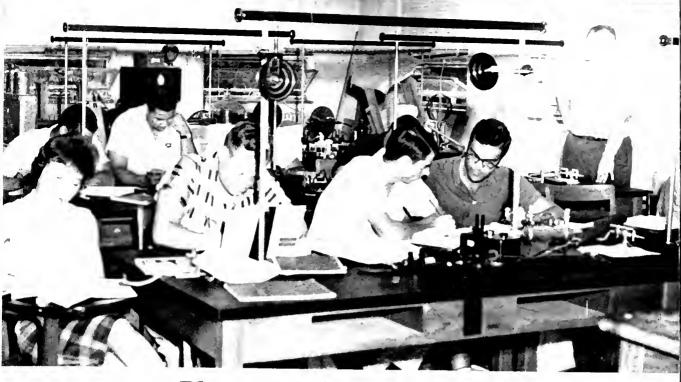

Something's Cooking

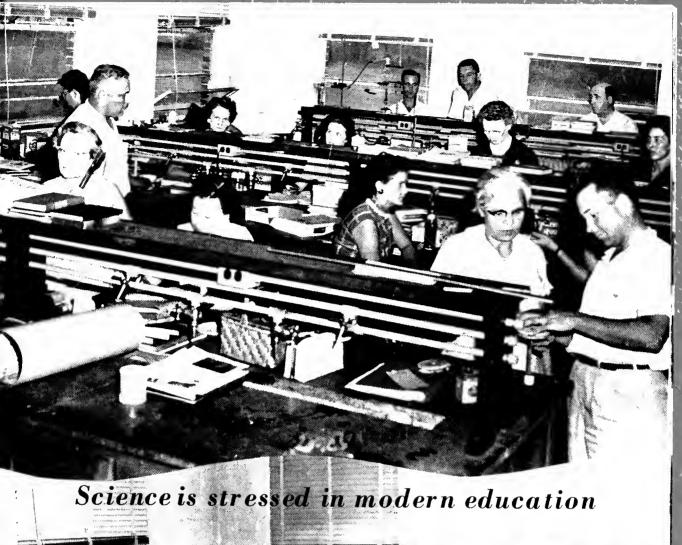

In clothing class, Pat assists Liz with her wedding gown.

Physics and The Physical

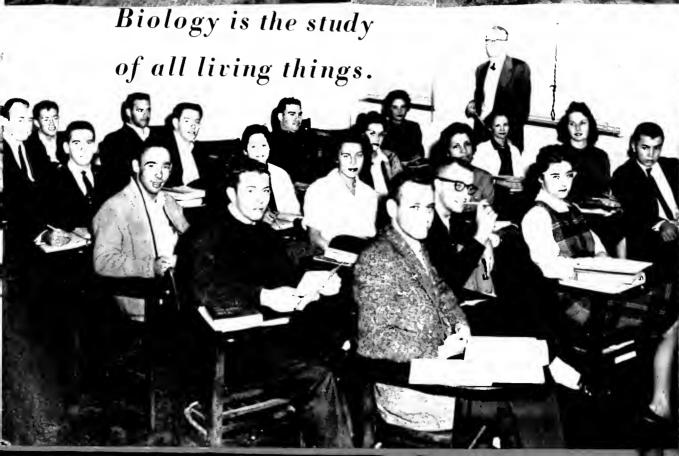

"Know then thyself, presume not God to scan; The proper study of mankind is Man."

"Better build schoolrooms for 'the boy',
Thon cells and gibbets for 'the man'."

Student teachers were invited to attend Science Work – shop.

Student teachers at Pembroke State College devate nine full weeks to practice teaching in assigned schools throughout the State. (Below) Mary Lane Freeman conducts a typing class at Magnolia High School.

One of the most coveted honors on the P.S.C. campus is that of being chosen as a college morshal. On the basis of their academic standing, their character and their dependability, students are chosen for this position.

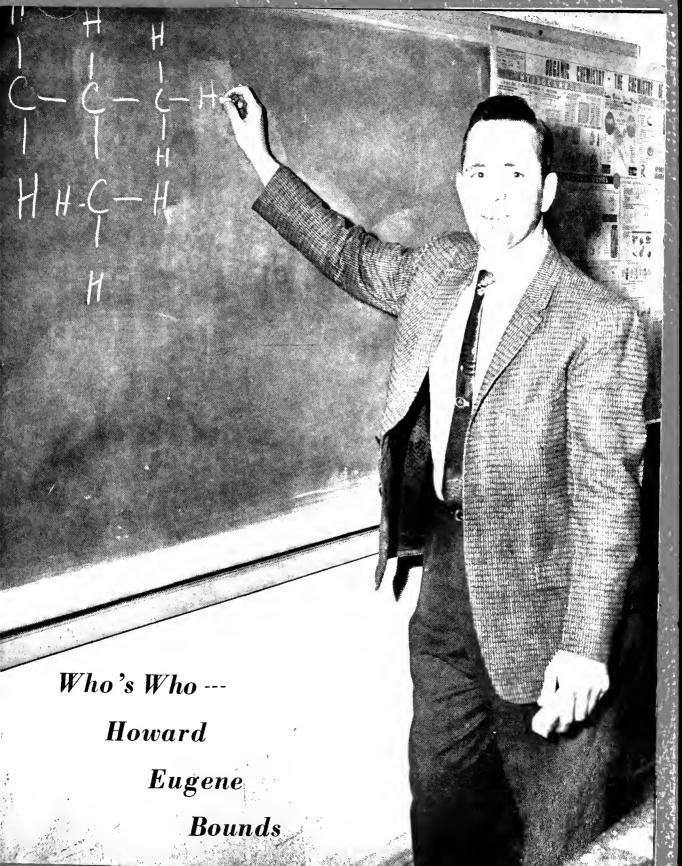

MR. JOHN L. CARTER becomes the new registror of P.S.C. succeeding MR. JAMES A. JACOBS who has held this position for many years.

MRS. NORMA JEAN THOMPSON is o new secretary in the business office.

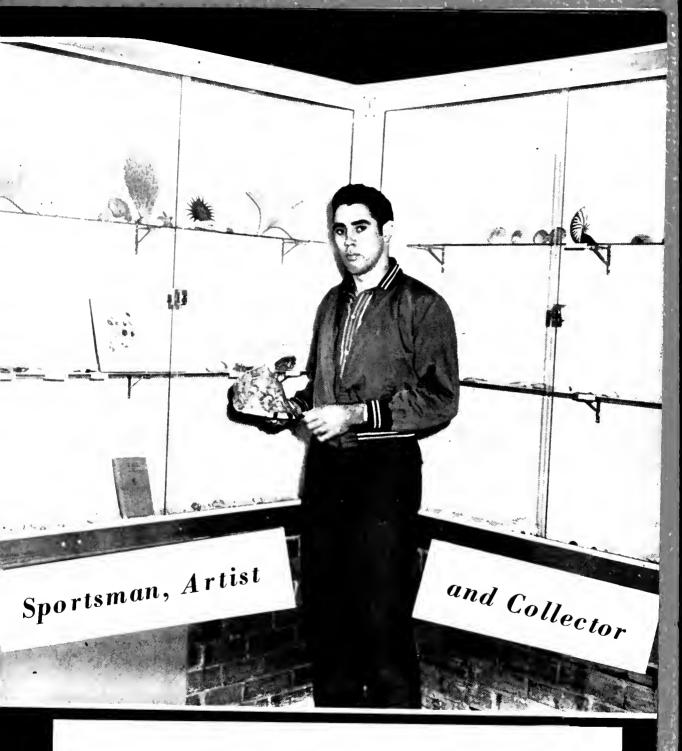

DICK REGENSBURG finds pleasure as an archer in target competition ar as a lane hunter of wild game, as a "rock hound" and fossil callector, or as a fine artist painting beautiful scenery for art class ar far interior decoration. His callections of shells, butterflies and orrowheads place him among the most dedicated of amateur callectors.

An Athlete's Prayer

Our God, our One Head Cooch divine,
Guide us through life's playing time.
Teoch us how to ploy the gome
Only in a sporting vein.
Endow us with the will to win,
With a spirit striving from within.
And, Cooch, teach us as we live and learn
To expect only what we rightly earn
Quitting never; though discouraged, be
Ever true to self, to team, to Thee,

Keep us clean in speech and thought, In doing, and in living as we ought.
Of hate and envy keep us free,
For more discerning men that we,
Prepare us now in friendly strife
On the playing field of life.
And someday, Master, Cooch Supreme,
Let us play on Your great team.
